Lisbon, Sept. 30. N. S.

THE Queen-Dowager of England continues to have the chief Care of the young Princes and Princesses of Portugal, but finding the Air of the Place to which she removed upon the Queen's Death to be prejudicial to her Health, Her Majesty is returned to her own House. The Marquis of Aroncher, formerly Ambassador from this Crown to the Emperor, being accused of having caused a Gentleman to be murdered during his Residence at Vienna, was lately brought to his Tryal here, and condemned toa Perpetual Banishment in the West-Indies, to give 40000 Livers to the Heirs of the deceased, and to pay besides a Fine of 4000 Livers, and the Costs of the Suit. Five Merchant Ships are lately arrived here from Rio Janeiro in Brazil, who among other Things have brought home 700 Pounds of Gold Dust, (whereas in former years they did not use to bring home above a 4th Part of that Quantity,) which the Portuguese found among the Sand of the Rivers that come from the Mountains to their Colony of St. Paul. And they write, that they not only expect to send home a far greater quantity of this Gold Dust next year, but have also hopes of discovering some new Mines in the said Mountains, in order to which they have already proceeded a great way in clearing the Ground through which these Rivers run, which is very woody, but proves a good arable Soil.

Madrid, October 9. The Court continues at the Escurial, where the King does frequently divert himself with Hunting, being in perfect Health. The Countess of Berlips is still at Court, and has fixed no time for her leaving this Kingdom. The Duke d'Uzeda, whom the King has appointed to be his Ambassador to the Pope, is gone from hence for Barcelona with his Lady, and all his Family, (except the Marquis de Belmonte his Eldest Son, who has lately married one of the Conde d'Oropesa's Daughters) where they will go on board the Duke of Tursis's Galleys, which are to carry them to Civita-Vicchia, and the Duke of St. Juan makes use of this opportunity to go to Sardinia, of which Island he is lately made Vice Roy. The Marquis of Villa-Gavsia, newly made Vice-Roy of the Kingdom of Valenza, has Orders to repair forthwith to his Government. The Ambassadors of the Emperor, France, Venice, and Savoy, and several other Persons of Quality, are gone upon an Invitation from the Marquis of Leganes to his House at Morata near Toledo, where great Preparations are made for their Entertainment, and it's thought they will continue there as long as the Court is at the Escurial.

Rome, Octob. 12. The Prince of Monaco, Ambassador from the Most Christian King to the Pope, and Signior Erizzo, Ambassador from the Republick of Venice, are preparing for their Publick Entries, which they are to make in few days; Several Regulations have been made in relation to the Publick Entries of Ambassadors, to prevent for the future the like Disorders as happen'd lately at the Entry of the Ambassador of Tuscany, by the Dispute between the Imperial Ambassador and the Cardinal de Bouillon, touching Precedency. The Pope continues in good Health, and goes frequently abroad to visit divers new Buildings that are making by his Order in and about this City for its greater Beauty and Conveniency. A great number of Strangers do daily arrive here, to be present at the Jubilee.

Vienna, Octob. 21. Preparations are making for the Reception of the Dutchess-Dowager of Hanouer, who is shortly expected here from Modena, to be present at the Lying in of the Queen of the Romans her Daughter. Count Otting, Ambassador from the Emperor to the Port, began his Journey thither yesterday; And our Letters from Peter-Waradin of the 5th Instant say, the Turkish Commissioners who are to attend him, and defray the Charges of his Journey through the Turkish Dominions, were come to that Place to wait for his Excellency's Arrival, and that the Turkish Ambassador to the Emperor was expected at Belgrade on the 20th Instant.

Francfort, Octob. 29. The Commissioners, who are to meet here in order to adjust the Pretensions of the Dutchess of Orleans on the Palatinate, have had several Conferences, and Monsieur Hautois Commissioner from her Royal Highness, having presented a Memorial containing her Demands, the Sieur Zachtman, Commissioner from the Elector Palatine, has desired some time to consider of it, and return his Answer, and Monsieur Obrecht, Commissioner from France, is gone in the mean time to pass a few days at Strasbourg. The Elector Palatine is expected in 8 or 10 days from Newstadt at Weynheim, where his Electoral Highness intends to make a short stay, and then to return to Dusseldorp.
